1. Chris-tian wom - en, Chris-tian men, Have we ears to hear
 2. Down a grim - y cit - y street Have we eyes to see
 3. When Sa - tan - ic gloom as - sails, Have we strength to hold
 4. Chris-tian wom - en, Chris-tian men, Have we hearts to love

The cry - ing of a home-less child Hun-gry and in fear?
 The fac - es of the aged and ill Lost in pov - er - ty?
 The for - tress of our liv - ing faith Till God's day dawns gold?
 Our neigh-bors as we love our-selves, Serv-ing God a - bove?

In the name of Je - sus, yes, We have ears to hear!
 In the name of Je - sus, yes, We have eyes to see!
 In the name of Je - sus, yes, We have strength to hold!
 In the name of Je - sus, yes, We have hearts to love!

In the name of Je - sus, yes, We hear! We hear!
 In the name of Je - sus, yes, We see! We see!
 In the name of Je - sus, yes, We hold! We hold!
 In the name of Je - sus, yes, We love! We love!
